

The Crucible Vocabulary Pages 94-151

Arthur Miller

Set 4

- Across
- 2 extremely thin and bony; haggard and drawn, as from great hunger, weariness.
- 4 to publicly state that someone or something is bad or wrong; to speak out against something.
- 7 Latin for "by the fact itself"; it can be rephrased as 'because of that fact or act'
- 8 sly or cunning intelligence used in a clever and usually dishonest manner to achieve something.

- Down
- 1 expressive of disbelief and skepticism
- 3 telling a lie in a court of law after promising to tell the truth.
- 5 to give power or authority to someone; especially legal power or official authority.
- 6 to express disapproval of, criticism of, or disappointment in someone