

Oral Report

Your group's oral report must cover the following topics. Equally divide up the presentation among your members:

1. Explanation of your group's symbol. Why you chose it? What are the connections to the character?
2. Explanation of your background. How does it connect to the play? Why did you choose it?
3. Explanation of the connections between your character and all of the other characters.
4. Explanation of the connections between the other characters and how you represented them.

Oral Report

Your group's oral report must cover the following topics. Equally divide up the presentation among your members:

1. Explanation of your group's symbol. Why you chose it? What are the connections to the character?
2. Explanation of your background. How does it connect to the play? Why did you choose it?
3. Explanation of the connections between your character and all of the other characters.
4. Explanation of the connections between the other characters and how you represented them.