

-
1. Who were the victims in your book? How did they react to their plight?
 2. What does your book show about how the Nazis came to power in Europe? What did the Nazis do to strengthen their power and control over their victims?
 3. What does your book show about actions that mistreated, oppressed people took to resist the repressive policies? If they didn't resist, why didn't they?
 4. Does your book include incidents of the Nazis using fear to control others? If so, what are the incidents?

5. What did the other European citizens do as the Nazis carried out their oppressive plan? Be as specific as possible with examples from the text.