

What was done to confine the victims in your books? How did the people who saw this happening react to the situation? What does this tell us?

What was done to help the victims of the Holocaust in your books?
What can we learn from that? What could've been done to help them in your books? List at least ten answers.